

Beth Edwards
Dirigo High School
Dixfield Maine

Focus of Grant: Study the Southern Perspective of the Civil War.

Themes and Essential Questions:

- *What is the cost of freedom?
- *What happens when belief system of societies and individuals come into conflict.
- *How does an individual's point of view affect the way they deal with conflict?

Presentation:

Wikispace = <http://edwardsbeth.wikispaces.com/Entrance>

Martin Bear's Travels = <http://martinbearstravels.blogspot.com>

Keynote Presentation = Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson

Picture books, frame, Martin, books, hats, and more.

Future Goals:

1. Student trip to Washington DC and sites in Virginia.
2. Creation of a semester long course over the American Civil War.

Themes and Essential Questions

1. How does Conflict lead to change?
2. Is Freedom ever free?
3. What happens when belief systems of societies and individuals come into conflict?
4. When is it appropriate to challenge the beliefs or values of society?
5. When should an individual take a stand against what he/she believes to be an injustice? What are the most effective ways to do this?
6. What are the politics and consequences of war, and how do these vary based on an individual or cultural perspective? <http://www.greece.k12.ny.us/>